IN THE CLAIMS

Replace claims 1, 10, 13, and 22 with the following claims:

1.(TWICE AMENDED) A connector for connecting elongated enclosures of a wire and cable enclosure system, the connector comprising:

a manually bendable channel-like pleated body having first and second ends, the pleated body including a plurality of pleats which fold into and out of one another;

a first coupling member extending from the first end of the body, the first coupling member for attaching one of the elongated enclosures to the connector; and
